

AMSTERDAM PUBLIC LIBRARY OBA 2024 CULTURAL HUB AND CITY VIEWS

The OBA Amsterdam, or Amsterdam Public Library, will transform into an even greater cultural hub in 2024, offering expansive city views and diverse activities. Situated at OBA Oosterdok, this seven-story treasure trove holds over 1.5 million items and now includes extended digital resources and interactive exhibits on Dutch literature. Visitors can participate in a plethora of cultural events such as author talks, workshops, concerts, and guided architecture tours that spotlight the library's sustainable design. Don't forget to visit the rooftop terrace; besides the breathtaking panoramic views of Amsterdam, it houses a delightful restaurant where visitors can enjoy a meal while soaking in the scenery. It's conveniently located only a 15-minute walking distance east of the White Tulip Hostel along Prins Hendrikkade or by taking bus 22 to Oosterdokseiland. Open daily from 10:00 to 22:00, it's a perfect place to explore Amsterdam's rich culture and vibrant community. Discover the Cultural Heartbeat of Amsterdam at the OBA Amsterdam's central library, the OBA Oosterdok, continues to be a magnetic center for cultural and literary enthusiasts. More than just a library, the OBA is a contemporary cultural hub that caters to the diverse interests of Amsterdam's residents and visitors. . .
