

EXPLORE AMSTERDAM KATTENKABINET 2024 UNIQUE CAT ART MUSEUM

If you're fascinated by both cats and art, Amsterdam's Kattenkabinet is a treasure trove waiting for you. In 2024, this unique museum, located in a beautiful 17th-century canal house on Herengracht, delights visitors with its extensive collection of feline-themed paintings, sculptures, and artifacts. Founded in 1990 by the art dealer William Meijer in memory of his beloved cat, the museum continues to collaborate with the Rijksmuseum and Van Gogh Museum, adding fresh, interactive exhibits that delve into cats' role in Dutch culture. Make sure to meet the five resident cats who embody the soul of this place. Just a scenic 15-minute walk from the White Tulip Hostel, this museum offers a charming glimpse into Amsterdam's historic Golden Age architecture. Open Tuesday to Sunday, it even has extended hours on weekends. Plus, if you book your visit directly through their website, you can snag a nifty discount! Discover the Feline Wonders at Amsterdam's Kattenkabinet in 2024! Imagine wandering through a historic canal house filled with feline-inspired art. That's exactly what you get at the Kattenkabinet. Located on the iconic Herengracht canal, this gem is one of Amsterdam's best-kept secrets. . .
