

EXPLORE DE POEZENBOOT AMSTERDAM 2024 FLOATING CAT SANCTUARY

De Poezenboot, Amsterdam's famous floating cat sanctuary, provides a remarkable experience for animal lovers visiting the city in 2024. Situated on Singel 38 G, this unique canal houseboat serves as a haven for stray and abandoned cats, offering them a chance for a new life through adoption. Visitors can tour the improved facilities, learn about cat care, and delve into the sanctuary's history at the new visitor center. For a special treat, join a "cat yoga" session available on weekends. De Poezenboot is open daily from 1 PM to 3 PM, except Wednesdays and Sundays. Kindly respect the cats' space and follow the volunteers' instructions for an enjoyable visit. Donations are appreciated to support the sanctuary's mission. Conveniently accessible, it's a pleasant 15-minute walk from the White Tulip Hostel to the sanctuary. Dive into the Unique World of De Poezenboot The Enchanting History and Mission De Poezenboot, a one-of-a-kind floating shelter, was established in the late 1960s. Its mission revolves around animal welfare, focusing on caring for stray and abandoned cats. This canal houseboat symbolizes compassion and commitment, bridging the gap between homeless felines and loving adopters. .
