

IS THERE A RESTAURANT AT THE WHITE TULIP HOSTEL AMSTERDAM?

Is there a restaurant at The White Tulip Hostel Amsterdam? On-site Dining Confirmation: The White Tulip Hostel in Amsterdam's iconic Red Light District doesn't have a traditional restaurant, but it offers something just as appealing to travelers looking for good food without leaving the hostel. Directly downstairs, you'll find the Slainte Irish Pub (also called Slainte), where you can enjoy Irish cuisine all day long—breakfast is served until 22:00, alongside lunch and dinner options. Plus, if you're a hostel guest, you get a sweet perk: a 15-25% discount on food and drinks. And who can resist the daily Heineken happy hours? It's perfect for backpackers, students, and solo travelers craving a social vibe combined with tasty, affordable meals. So, while it's not a formal restaurant, the pub downstairs acts like the social kitchen hub for anyone staying at this budget hostel Amsterdam. It's cozy, lively, and tailored for those who want to mingle and grab a meal without trekking around the city. . .
