

DOES THE WHITE TULIP HOSTEL AMSTERDAM PROVIDE BED LINEN

Bed linen arrangements at The White Tulip Hostel Amsterdam can vary by booked room type and rate. Check the facilities and inclusions in your exact reservation, and contact the hostel before arrival when the information about sheets, blankets or towels is unclear. Where to find the bed linen details for your stay Start with the facilities and inclusions displayed for the room and rate you selected. Those booking details are more reliable than a general answer because different room types or rates may have different arrangements. Look for information that applies to your exact reservation. If the wording is missing or unclear, contact the hostel before travelling and ask for confirmation rather than assuming that one linen arrangement applies to every room. Why the room type and rate both matter The confirmed information states that bed linen arrangements can depend on both the room type and the rate. This means two guests can receive different booking information even when they are staying at the same Amsterdam hostel. Use the reservation itself as the reference point. It identifies the booked option and makes it easier for the hostel to confirm what applies to that stay. . .
